Insurers are legally required to provide details of motor insurance policies to the MIIC. Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS.

CLAIMS

Claims Helpline Numbers: 0845 130 4555

We have no authority to handle claims on behalf of insurers but can advise you on who to phone and how to make your claim. In the event of an accident which may give rise to a claim under your policy you should notify the Claims Helpline as soon as possible on the above number. You must not settle, reject, negotiate or agree to pay any claim without written permission from your insurer. Full details of how to claim are included in your policy documentation.

If, as a result of an accident that was not your fault, you require legal representation we will arrange for our recommended solicitors, Silverbeck Rymer, to act for you. The solicitors have been chosen as experts in this field and a fee of five hundred pounds is paid by them to us for referring your claim to them. We comply with the Solicitor's Code of Conduct 2007 in relation to the rules on referrals which ensures that any solicitors we use are independent professionals who can give impartial and confidential advice.

ADMINISTRATIVE CHARGES

In addition to the premiums charged by insurers, we make charges for our professional services to cover the administration of your insurance. Charges may be applied for:

- Mid-term alterations and duplicate documents
- Annual policy arrangement charges
- Cancellation. Exceptions apply if the policy is cancelled within 14 days of receiving the documents. See Cancellation policy below.

We reserve the right to amend the level of charges at any time. Any charges made by credit card will incur a charge of £4.50 or 2.5% of the transaction whichever is the greater.

CANCELLATION OF INSURANCE POLICY

Cancelling within fourteen days

You have the right to cancel your policy during a period of 14 days either from the day of purchase or the day on which you receive your policy documentation, whichever is the later. If you exercise this right and the cover had not yet commenced, you will be entitled to a full refund of the premium paid. If the insurance has commenced, and provided that you have not made a claim, you will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid, subject to a deduction for the time that you have been on cover (calculated as a proportion of the annual premium). In either case, the administrative charge for setting up the policy will not be refunded. If you have made a claim, it is likely that none of the premium will be refunded.

To exercise your right to cancel, please contact Mobilers Insurance Service Ltd, John Garth House, Engine Lane, Stourbridge DY9 7DF. You will be required to put your cancellation in writing and to return any Certificate of Motor Insurance or cover note immediately. We cannot progress your cancellation until we have received these documents. We strongly recommend you use Recorded Delivery or other trackable postage method to advise of cancellation and to return your documents. We are not responsible for documents that have been lost in transit. Please note you cannot cancel or transfer a Caterers liability policy and there is no refund of premium available.

Cancelling after the first fourteen days

Unless otherwise stated, insurance policies are arranged for a period of 12 months and you are required to pay the full amount stated. If you wish to cancel the policy before the expiry date (other than within the first fourteen days as above) and there have been no claims, your insurer will refer to their published cancellation procedures as detailed in their policy documents and you may also incur cancellation charges. Any discounts that were applied to the original premium are based on a policy duration of 12 months and become void if the policy is cancelled in less than twelve months.

You will be required to put your cancellation in writing and to return any Certificate of Motor Insurance or cover note immediately. We cannot progress your cancellation until we have received these documents. We strongly recommend you use Recorded Delivery or other trackable postage method to advise of cancellation and to return your documents. We are not responsible for documents that have been lost in transit.

Depending on the terms and age of your policy your insurer may retain your premium in full or you may be charged short term cancellation charges which are not proportionate to the annual premium but which form part of the contract offered. Insurers cancellation terms will be outlined in their terms and conditions and we recommend you read these carefully. If you have made a claim it is highly unlikely that any premium will be refunded.

We do not refund any of the arrangement fees that were incurred at inception of the policy, and we will deduct our commission and any discount originally applied from the amount returned to you by the insurer. Any products you purchased alongside your policy, such as Key Care, are one off purchases and non refundable.

A cancellation charge will be applied to your account.

Policies Cancelled by the Insurer or Finance Company

If your policy is cancelled by us, the insurer or the Finance Company regardless of whether it is within the first fourteen days, the cancellation will be treated as a standard cancellation and will incur charges as above.

PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS AND REFUNDS

Unless otherwise agreed and formalised by a premium instalment plan, all premiums are due on the day cover is arranged, the date the policy is due for renewal or the date of any mid term adjustment.

Payment by instalments

Payments can be made in full, by two monthly instalments which must be made in the first two months of the policy term or, once an initial deposit has been paid, we can make arrangements for your premium to be paid by a finance company so that you can pay by instalment if this is more appropriate for you. This works in the same way as a loan. The finance company pay your premium and you pay back the finance company by monthly instalments including any interest that the finance company may apply. You will be responsible for paying the monthly instalments as they fall due. In the event of any due payment not being made, the overdue payment must be made immediately. An administration charge will be incurred for the failed payment. If the payment is not received within 7 days of the default the policy will be cancelled.

If an insurance policy is cancelled, any refund provided by the insurer after deduction of any charges (please see our cancellation policy for details) will be used against the outstanding balance on your instalment plan. Any remaining charges will need to be paid in full and we may use the services of a debt collection agency if the balance remains outstanding. Similarly if there has been a claim on the policy the insurers will retain the full premium but the full amount will still need to be paid to the finance company.

If you cancel your direct debit mandate to suspend payment of a finance arrangement, although this may lead to our early termination of your policy and associated charges, it will not automatically cancel your insurance policy. You should always write to us in accordance with our cancellation policy to cancel your insurance.

Withholding documents

We have the right to withhold essential documents, such as evidence of no claims bonus, until due payments have been made and any cheques cleared. We will provide any documents you are required to have by law.

Refunds

Any refunds will be made by cheque to the policy holder. This is dependent on the insurer returning the premium to us and can take up to 4-6 weeks.

Other taxes and costs

Other taxes and/or costs may exist in respect of other products and services offered by us, which are not paid through or imposed by us.

RENEWAL

Under certain circumstances and to make the process of renewal easier we can automatically renew a policy and take payment by the same payment method as the previous year. We will always write to advise you before we automatically renew any policy and give you the opportunity to contact us to cancel the renewal.

If your policy is not eligible for automatic renewal we will write to you prior to your renewal date to remind you that your renewal is due and to advise you how much the new premium will be. You will need to contact us to arrange your renewal.

RISK TRANSFER

Premiums that we collect from you are held in an insurance broking bank account specifically for the purpose of holding client money. By virtue of agreements held with insurers, we collect premiums as agents of the insurer. Once we have collected the premium from you, under the terms of our agreements with insurers, those premiums are treated as having been paid to the insurer.

Money that we collect from you will be held in a segregated account, separate from our own business account, and will be remitted to insurers in accordance with our agreement with them. If we become insolvent, the terms of the trust dictate that insurers will have a prior claim on the money in the account according to their respective interests.

Earning interest on customer premiums

We hold premiums that you pay us in our client money bank account. Under Financial Services Authority regulations we have to inform you that we may earn interest from money held in this account. Interest earned will not be held for the benefit of customers.

We may also invest these premiums in a range of permitted designated investments as prescribed by the Financial Services Authority. In the event that there is any shortfall in our client money resource attributable to falls in the market value of any of these permitted designated investments we shall make provision for, and bear the cost of, any such shortfall.

Customer money passed to another organisation

In accordance with Financial Services Authority Regulations we have to inform you that in managing or arranging your insurance requirements, we may transfer money that you have paid us in payment of an insurance premium to another insurance intermediary. This has no effect on your insurance arrangements with us as your broker or your insurer.

GOVERNING LAW

This agreement shall be governed by the laws of England and Wales and the parties agree that any dispute arising out of it shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

VARIATIONS

No variation of these terms is held to be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorised officer of the company. The company's staff are not authorised to agree to any variation of these terms. From time to time the company may review the terms and reserve the right to amend them without notice.

STATUTORY RIGHTS

Agreement to our Terms of Business does not affect your statutory rights.

These are our stated Terms of Business. We will assume you are in agreement with these terms unless you notify us to the contrary within five days of receipt of the documents.
